Live Worthy of the Gospel // Philippians 1:27–30 Pastor Matthew St. John // February 12, 2017

DISCUSSION questions

- Many of us can find reasons to be proud of our nation, imperfect as it is. In what ways might our earthly citizenship get in the way of kingdom citizenship?
- 2. In a world so divided along ethnic, cultural, political and economic lines, what might it look like for the gospel to empower diverse disciples to "strive side by side for the faith?"
- 3. Read 2 Corinthians 2:15–16. In what way do those verses square with Philippians 1:28? How does your life serve as a sign of judgment and of grace?
- 4. Philippians 1:29 suggests a relationship between belief in Christ and suffering. What are implications of this in your life?
- 5. Take up the challenge of memorizing Philippians 2:5–11. Consider partnering with your Life Group or family in this endeavor.
