

In opposition to a man, the y becoming obedient death on a cross the highest place and man's name after all the the gift of God
die is gain,
life is Christ
die is gain,
life is Christ
die is gain,
life is Christ

Philippians
I can do all things him who gives me strength
I will say again: Rejoice
I will say again: Rejoice
I will say again: Rejoice
I will say again: Rejoice
I will say again: Rejoice

Philippians

Letting Jesus Overwhelm You

Be a Heavenly Citizen // Philippians 3:17-4:1

Pastor Matthew St. John // April 9, 2017

Discussion Questions

1. What characteristics have you noticed in others that you find admirable and imitable?
2. We often think about Christianity in individual and independent ways, especially as it relates to holiness. What would it look like for us to pursue Christ-likeness in community?
3. Read Philippians 2 & 3. List all the truths that you see here that provide the basis for Paul's command to "stand firm" in Philippians 4:1.
4. Of the three commands in this passage (join me, take note, and stand firm) which one do you need encouragement to obey and why?
5. As you close your time together, use the names in Philippians 3:24 to shape prayers of praise to Jesus as Savior, Christ and Lord.

Memorize Philippians 2:5-11 this week!

Message notes available at newhopechurchmn.org/messages.

April 16-Easter Sunday

Emptied, Philippians 2:7, Pastor Matthew St. John