Abigail—Standing In the Gap

1 Samuel 25 || Pastor Matthew St. John || May 14, 2017

Discussion Questions

1. Who is a woman in your life who has been a “rising tide”—lifting up those around her?
2. Read 2 Corinthians 5:18–21. How does Jesus stand in the gap for us as a greater substitute than Abigail?
3. For women: What obstacles are there in your life or attitude that keep you from exhibiting a boldness as a “warrior-partner” in your family, church and community? For men: How can you receive and celebrate women in your life in a way that honors and esteems this God-given design? What steps will you take to embrace your unique influence more completely?
4. Read Ephesians 1:3–14. What does this passage say about the identity, position and source of worth of redeemed ones? In what ways do these truths underscore your completeness as a beloved child of God?
