

God's Love: Uniquely Designed

1 Corinthians 12:18–27 || Pastor David Myles || April 8, 2018

Discussion Questions

1. Tell a brief story about a time something on your body broke or suffered. What was the restoration process like?
2. From your perspective, what parts of the body of Christ seem to get the most honor? The least?
3. What kinds of gifts in the body of Christ are you more likely to think you don't need? Whether or not you would say "I don't need you" to someone, does your life demonstrate that you don't need or aren't willing to receive from certain kinds of people or certain kinds of gifts?
4. If you are a disciple of Jesus, ask those in your Life Group, family or friend group what they think your spiritual gifts are. (See Romans 12:3–8, 1 Corinthians 12:8–10 or Ephesians 4:11.)
 - Encourage each other by celebrating moments you have used your gifts.
 - Spend time thanking the Holy Spirit for giving these good gifts.
5. God arranged and composed the body as He designed. How can you actively trust God's good plan by using your gifts and receiving from others—whether they are differently-abled or differently-gifted than you?
